Additional charges

Minimum booking fee

A booking fee of $55 applies when booking fewer than two consecutive nights or transportation without accommodation. In some cases we are unable to book transportation or sightseeing without accommodation at point of origin.

Late bookings

Bookings made within 14 days of travel incur a late booking fee of $55. Full payment must be made before we request these arrangements. If not available – a full refund minus the late booking fee will be made.

Unused services

No refund can be considered in the following cases: non-acceptance of pre-booked tourist and transport services once journey has commenced, irrespective of the reason; where passengers are unable to travel due to invalid or mislaid travel documents (e.g. passport, visas); unused portion of services which are included in an all-in holiday price, unused rail and transfer services. Any complaint while travelling on tour should be made immediately to the local authorities, hotel management, service bureau or your guide. If unresolved on the spot, the complaint should be made in writing to Eastern Europe Travel within one month. Eastern Europe Travel does not authorise any overseas supplier or hotel to promise re-arrangements or receive a full refund.

Changes to itineraries

It may be necessary for reasons beyond our control to cancel or amend any of the arrangements for a particular itinerary, or to cancel the tour should insufficient numbers book. Should this occur you may transfer to another tour, book independent arrangements or receive a full refund.

Insurance

It is strongly recommended that adequate travel insurance is taken out at the time of booking. Your travel agent will be able to offer a choice of policies.

Tours

Tailor-made itineraries

We are happy to design an itinerary to suit your specific requirements. However, this can involve a considerable amount of time and research. We will therefore require a non-refundable deposit of $100 to commence this work. This amount will be credited against your tour cost if you decide to proceed with the arrangements.

Hotel classifications

The hotels classified in this brochure (with the exception of deluxe hotels) are based on local classifications, which vary from country to country and do not necessarily coincide with other international standards. Hotel rooms are often smaller than similar categories in Australia, double beds are not always available and air conditioning is the exception rather than the rule. Triple share rooms are generally based on an extra rollaway bed, not always suitable for adults.

Important matters

Please bear in mind that some regions featured in this brochure are still developing and services may not coincide with international standards.

Passports & visas

It is the responsibility of the traveller to ensure they have an up-to-date valid passport. It should be valid for 6 months from the date of exiting the country. Australian and New Zealand passport-holders may require a visa for travel to certain countries featured in this brochure. Please check with your travel agent for up-to-date information. It is the passenger's responsibility to obtain the necessary visas prior to departure.

Validity of prices / information January to December 2010

Information on fares, accommodation itineraries, conditions is accurate at time of printing (Jan 2010) however, due to factors beyond our control, may vary from those stated. Prices for independent rail sectors are frequently increased and the prices in this brochure should be taken as a quote – subject to confirmation. Due to circumstances beyond our control (major currency fluctuations, increased government charges, fuel and other surcharges) we may have to increase the total price of your travel arrangements prior to final payment. This may occur without advance warning. We will endeavour to keep such increases to a minimum. Clients can choose to make full payment at time of booking to avoid such possible increases. Once final payment has been received there will be no increase in price. All arrangements are at the discretion of local operators. Acceptance of points stated herein is a condition of booking. Prices printed take into consideration research, printing and communication costs and do not imply that similar product may not be booked on the spot at a lower price.
